GENERAL PRICE LIST

These prices are effective as of October 20, 2022, but are subject to change without notice.

Prior to drafting any contract for goods and services, the responsible party or the decedent's survivor who is handling the funeral arrangements is entitled to receive a copy of any preneed agreement in the possession of the funeral establishment that has been signed and paid for, in full or in part, by or on behalf of the deceased.

The goods and services shown on the following pages are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only the items you desire. However, any cremation services or funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic services of funeral director and staff. If legal or other requirements mean you must purchase any item you did not specifically ask for, the reason for the requirement of that item will be explained in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services selected.

BASIC SERVICES OF THE FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND STAFF AND OVERHEAD: $1095

This fee for our basic services and overhead will be added to the total cost of the funeral arrangements you select. (This fee is already included in our charges for direct cremation, direct burials, and forwarding and receiving of remains.) This fee includes the following: Personnel available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year to respond to initial call. The arrangement conference, coordinating service plans with cemetery, crematory, and/or other parties involved in the final disposition of the deceased. Clerical assistance in the completion of various forms associated with the funeral. It also covers overhead, including facility maintenance, equipment and inventory costs, insurance and governmental compliance costs.

EMBALMING: $595

Except in certain special cases, embalming is not required by state law. Embalming may be necessary, however, if you select arrangements with viewing or if you wish to have your loved one to be dressed. If you do not want embalming, you usually have the right to choose an arrangement that does not require you to pay for it, such as direct cremation, immediate burial or any service where there will not be an open casket at your service.
